

Definition : A function  $f : D \rightarrow C$  is a bijection means that it is both one-to-one and onto. The inverse of a bijection  $f : D \rightarrow C$  is the function  $g : C \rightarrow D$  such that  $g(b) = a$  iff  $f(a) = b$ .