Definition: A function $f: D \to C$ is a bijection means that it is both one-to-one and onto. The inverse of a bijection $f: D \to C$ is the function $g: C \to D$ such that g(b) = a iff f(a) = b.