Definition: For nonempty sets A, B, we say that the cardinality of A is no bigger than the cardinality of B, and write $|A| \leq |B|$, to mean there is a one-to-one function with domain A and codomain B. Also, we define $|\emptyset| \leq |B|$ for all sets B.